

BRIAN DUBOIS CHALMERS

June 25, 2009

I've known Brian since the band "Stymee" was around. I was known as Miss Begonia. I wore a Stymee t-shirt designed by Brian. He was a good friend throughout the years. He'll be missed. He was so very loved! My prayers are with Brian and his family. Love, Dolores (Wasilko) Gray

Brian and his brothers grew up down the street from me and my family. I still remember going to their garage to hear their band play "The house of the Rising Sun". I am so sorry to hear about Brian. He was a very creative soul.

Thank you for being the gentle voice and a gentle chat after a show (usually about art) in a radio station full of fast-talking air personalities, sales people, etc. I don't pretend to know you well, but the little time we spent was always pleasant and I don't use that word carelessly in describing you. I could always use more "pleasant". If I could have been as talented a radio personality as you were an artist...

Dearest BC

I remember vividly, you, Dia and I hanging outside the Boneyard after Boom's memorial. Just the 3 of us chatting away!

There's plenty of drawing to be done in Heaven. Boom, my dear friend Rosemary, Jimi, Janis, Brian, Kurt, Koko, Muddy, Jerry.....and Farrah..(I'm sure you'll love that)!

Peace, hugs and much love,

My heart and thoughts go out to BC's family. I worked with him at the Buzzard for 8 years and stayed in touch long afterwards, and there was never a dull moment when he was around. Quick witted, passionate about his art, generous with his time, friendship and talent, BC will be missed. Here's a final "goo' luck" to you!

"Brian: You were an amazing artist, an amazing friend, an amazing person. Your wonderful work will live on, and so will you, in many hearts.

God Bless you and keep you. We were all so lucky to have known you. I'll miss our chats." Dee Adams (Mentor, Ohio)

Brian: your artistic vision gave Belkin Productions and live rock and roll in Cleveland their visual voice. I enjoyed working and brainstorming with you. The beers at the Rusty Scupper weren't bad either.! Last time I saw you, you made sure my two sons, new Humble Pie fans, knew what the good stuff was. A true talent. Rest in peace.

The news was tough to take regarding Brian's passing.

His talent and memory will be kept by many, not only in our hearts, but by the art he drew.

May God go with BC on his journey.

Brian - we worked together at Scene Magazine when I was just out of High School. You taught me so much - more than you realize. I feel very fortunate to have known and worked with you. Even after all these years I find myself thinking about your talent, wit, humor and all the other things that made you special.

My heart and prayers go out to your family.

Brian:

We were friends since high school and I felt fortunate enough to rekindle that friendship five years ago at the reunion. Since then, you have blessed my life with your presence, your photos and stories.

You will be missed and remembered.
